

Goal for the week: Convert the game loop into an API.

Requirements:

Fine tune – Improve upon base game logic by having players be unable to guess themselves and randomize the order of answers/players displayed.

Create the game – Initialize a game with a score limit and add players.

Question and answer – Display a question and have players POST their answers.

Guessing – Display available answers and players. Players make POST requests of their guesses.